 damage was done by a storm, a portion of the principals in the roof and the gable end being blown down, and the contractors refused to proceed with the building. At this stage the late Nathaniel Baine Esq., had all the brickwork taken down (the original building was of brick) and a stone building erected in its place. The seating accommodation is for 250. Since the opening - the whole having been re-seated. There are two vestries which can be thrown into the Chapel on special occasions and are used for Sunday Schools.

The Parsons Idol.

- 1st Money, Oh money, thy praises I sing,
Thou art my Saviour, my God and my King,
'Tis for thee that I preach, and for thee that I pray,
And make a collection twice each Sabbath day;
- 2nd I have candles and all sorts of dresses to buy,
For I wish you to know that my church is called high,
I don't mean in structure of steeple or wall,
But so high that the Lord cannot reach it at all.
- 3rd I have poor in my parish who need some relief,
I preach for their poverty, and pray for their grief,
I send my box round to them morning and night,
And hope they'll remember the poor widow's mite.
- 4th I gather my knowledge from wisdom's great tree,
And the whole of my Trinity's £. s. and d.,
Pounds, shillings and pence is all that I crave,
From my first step on earth, to the brink of my grave.
- 5th And when I'm laid low, and my body's at rest,
Place a box on my grave, 'tis my latest request,
That friends may all see, who come for reflection
I can't rest in peace, without a collection.
- 6th Money's my creed; I won't pray without it,
My heaven is closed against all those who doubt it,
For this is the essence of parsons religion,
Come regular to church and be plucked like a pigeon.
- 7th My pay may be hundreds or thousands a year,
Double it, treble it, still I am here,
With my box or my bags collecting your brass,
I can't do as Jesus did, ride on an ass.

8th I have horses and carriages, and servants and all,
I am not going to foot it like Peter and Paul,
Neither like John, live on locust and honey,
So out with your purse, and down with your money.

9th Fools sometimes ask what I do with the money,
They might as well ask what bee's do with honey,
I answer them all with a wink and a nod
I keep three thirds myself and give praises to God.

10th In the cold silent earth, I shall soon be laid low,
To sleep with the blest, that went long ago,
I shall slumber in peace, till the great resurrection,
Then be first on my legs to make a collection.

J. Nicholas, March. 1900.

4 Good Cat Story.

The following cat story is taken from the St. Augustine Hillburn Parish Magazine: "I once had a cat which always sat up to the dinner table with me, and had his napkin round his neck, and his plate and some fish. He used his paw, of course; but he was very particular, and behaved with extraordinary decorum. When he had finished his fish I sometimes gave him a piece of mine. One day he was not to be found when the dinner bell rang, so we began without him. Just as the plates were being put round for the entree, puss came running upstairs and sprang into his chair, with two mice in his mouth. Before he could be stopped he dropped a mouse on to his own plate and then one on to mine. He divided his dinner with me as I divided mine with him."
